

Cops bust gambling den in Rajkot hotel room, arrest 10

Ahmedabad : Crime branch sleuths busted a gambling den inside a hotel and also arrested 10 persons involved in the illegal activity on Wednesday. According to the police, at the behest of the hotel manager, who supplied an Aadhaar card of a person who was not present in the resident of Lodhika and deals in land had masterminded the clandestine operation after asking the manager of the hotel, John Kuria Kosh to give them a room. Addressing the media, deputy commissioner of police zone 1, Praveen and his section in-charge, asked manager Kosh to give them a room, which he told receptionist Preeti Patel to provide. Kosh then emailed an Aadhaar card of one Sohil Kothiyani, a resident of Jamnag, who was not present there, to the receptionist for the record of the hotel. According to the police, the receptionist handed over the key of the room to Vipul Behra, another and the receptionist has not identified proof did not match. Kothiyani's age as shown in the ID proof is 22, while Behra is 45-years-old. The receptionist failed to verify his identity before handing him the key, cops said. The police arrested Narendrasinh Jadeja (33), Manish Sondagar (40), Vipul Behra (45), Rasik Bhalodiya (43), Rajan Mehta (43), Bharat Dalsaniya (42), Karan Parmar (33), Kamlesh Popat (53), Arvind Faidul (41) and Pradeep Chavda (29). Except two accused, a few of the accused have factories in Morbi, while some others are engaged in real estate and other businesses. Hotel manager Kosh is still at large and the receptionist has not been arrested, but given a notice to explain her act, said cops.

Cast of Sony SAB's Wagle Ki Duniya - Nayi Peedhi Naye Kissey

Ahmedabad, Sony SAB's Wagle Ki Duniya - Nayi Peedhi Naye Kissey has soon become one of India's most loved shows because of its positive, light-hearted and relatable storyline catering to three different generations. The show focuses on spreading happiness and being helpful to everyone around us. Taking the spirit of festivities ahead and expressing their gratitude towards the phenomenal and dotting crew of Wagle Ki Duniya, the entire cast planned a surprise for the team. They made a generous contribution and gathered a lump sum amount which they spent towards gifting home essentials and appliances as a big thank you to the crew members for their relentless contribution and dedication towards the show. This gesture certainly took the warm and positive spirit of the festive season forward. Sumeet Raghavan, essaying the role of Rajesh Wagle said, "Diwali is one of the few times of the year when everyone comes together and celebrates while forgetting about work and other stresses. The Diwali party was the perfect occasion for everyone to connect without having to worry about getting the perfect shot and the dialogues right. (19-2)

World Diabetes Day 2021: A handful of almonds to better manage diabetes

ALMONDS for DIABETES

Ahmedabad, World Diabetes Day is celebrated every year on November 14 to mark diabetes awareness around this morbid ailment that impacts over 72 million people across India and is becoming one of the most common diseases across the country. According to the most recent 2019 report from the International Diabetes Federation, more than 463 million adults globally were living with diabetes, and by 2045, that number is expected to increase to 700 million. One in two adults have diabetes and don't know it. And another million 374 million people - more than one in 13 adults have prediabetes. Research suggests that lifestyle modifications, including improving physical activity, losing excess weight and making important dietary changes not only help manage type 2 diabetes, but for those with elevated risk, can reduce the risk for developing type 2 diabetes and may even provide better long-term effects than medication. As the world comes together to raise awareness, the theme for World Diabetes Day 2021-23 is Access to Diabetes Care. (20-4)

The body was sent to the civil hospital at Sonapat for post-mortem examination. According to Nirmal Singh,

Delhi govt installs bamboo barricades, sprinkles water to remove Yamuna froth

New Delhi, To address the problem of toxic foam found floating on the Yamuna River, the Delhi government on Wednesday resorted to measures ranging from sprinkling of water at high speed at various locations to dissipate the foam and set up bamboo barricades near Kalindi Kunj to stop such foam from floating towards the riverbank in the Capital. The Delhi government's efforts coincide with the day of Chhat Puja celebrations, even though the Yamuna remains out of bounds under an order of the Delhi Disaster Management Authority (DDMA), which has led to the government setting up Chhat Puja venues at 800 spots within the city.

Teen, granduncle end lives in Morbi

Ahmedabad : A teenager and her 42-year-old granduncle were found dead in a house at Chachapur village in Morbi taluka on Wednesday morning. Police suspect that Payal Chauhan (14) and her granduncle Amu Chauhan committed suicide as their bodies were found hanging in a house owned by one Laxman Chauhan. Payal lives in the village, while Amu, who lives in Ahmedabad, had come there to celebrate Diwali festivities. The duo had gone missing on Tuesday afternoon and the family searched for them unsuccessfully. On Wednesday morning, one of the family members found their bodies and alerted others and police.

Local cops nab Rajasthan millionaire for smuggling poppy capsules

Ahmedabad : A millionaire businessman from Jodhpur in Rajasthan, who owns malls and a petrol pump, was caught by the city police for his alleged involvement in smuggling of poppy capsules. The accused, 44-year-old Bhagwati Prasad alias Bhairathani Jani alias Bhaji Joraram Bishnoi was named in at least four cases filed under The Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances (NDPS) Act. Following specific leads, Bishnoi was caught by a team of Special Operation Group (SOG) as soon as he came out of the Surat railway station. The accused had a government license to deal in poppy straw powder from 2002 to 2015. Bishnoi used to sell the poppy straw powder to small traders. In 2015 the Rajasthan government discontinued issuing dealership licenses after which Bishnoi started his illegal trade. He was booked in Chittorgarh, Jaisalmer and Kota districts in multiple cases of narcotics smuggling. "Bishnoi was on the run for a long time. But as part of the city police's 'No Drugs In Surat' drive, we nabbed him. He is one of the kingpins involved in smuggling of 'posht', a type of poppy," said Ajay Tomar, city police commissioner. Police investigation revealed that Bishnoi owns two malls, a petrol pump, agriculture land and several other properties. "He was running a successful business when he had the license. After discontinuation of the license he took to smuggling. He made crores of rupees through the legal and then illegal business of poppy capsules," said an SOG officer.

Robbery on vegetable trader turns out to be fake

Ahmedabad : Investigation into the Rs.6.1 lakh cash robbery from a vegetable trader near Morbi has revealed that the trader had staged the crime to get rid of his debts. On Tuesday morning, vegetable trader Jesinh Solanki had lodged a complaint with Morbi police that he was looted of Rs. 6.1 lakh at knife-point. He also said the looted money was meant to purchase onions from the market. Police said that Solanki has admitted that he had planned the robbery as he had to pay money to several people. During investigation, police became suspicious because of Solanki's behaviour and his response to questions posed by cops. When cops continued asking him tricky questions, Solanki's lie was exposed and he admitted that his nephew Praful alias Pappu Solanki had robbed him along with his friend. Solanki told police that he had to repay money to several people as he had suffered a loss in business.
